Lyrics by (Natasha Khan Kazi); Composed by (Iryna Kulshenko); Performed by (Iryna Kulshenko).

The shining silver moon grows
See the smiling crescent's glow
Hearts are full because we know
It's Ramadan

Friends, family celebrate
Hang lanterns and decorate
Small things we appreciate
It's Ramadan

It's a special time of year
Share some smiles and bring some cheer
Tell your loved ones, far and near
The month of kindness is finally here
It's Ramadan

Time to give to those in need
Every day a new good deed
And every night, yummy feasts
It's Ramadan

The donations that we share
Shows each other that we care
Wish peace and joy everywhere
It's Ramadan

It's a special time of year
Share some smiles and bring some cheer
Tell your loved ones, far and near
The month of kindness is finally here
It's Ramadan

See the moon's changing light
Say hello at twilight
Countdown the days that go by
It's Ramadan

Be honest, patient, and kind
Bow your heads, and you will find
Every good thing comes with time
It's Ramadan

It's a special time of year
Share some smiles and bring some cheer
Tell your loved ones, far and near
The month of kindness is finally here
It's Ramadan
It's Ramadan
